All preschoolers are invited to these outings; however, attendance to these outings is optional and made solely by the decision of the caregiver.

This calendar reflects events for the upcoming school year. The monthly calendars distributed at the beginning of each month will have an updated list of events and happenings in the classroom. Please use this calendar as a reference for the entire year and read the monthly calendars for updates and more information about times and specific activities. Additional information will be available in the weekly newsletters sent home with your child.
